

The James Aronson Awards for

SOCIAL JUSTICE JOURNALISM

Fear of a Black President

Dollars and Dentists

Awards Celebration

Nuclear Menace in Outer Space

Armed for Profit: The Selling of U.S. Weapons

Monday April 28 2014

Inside The Biggest Oil Spill You've Never Heard Of

Torture at Abu Ghraib

Former Winning Article Titles

The James Aronson Awards for Social Justice Journalism Awards Celebration

Hosted by Rebecca Carroll

Journalist and Author of Saving the Race and the editor of Sugar in the Raw and Uncle Tom or New Negro?

Keynote Presentation by Joseph Huff-Hannon

Aronson Award Winner, Author, and Co-editor of Russian Love Stories: Gay Propaganda.

Awards Celebration

Monday, April 28th, 2014, 7 PM - 8:30 PM

Roosevelt House for Public Policy Institute at Hunter College
7-49 East 65th Street, NY, NY 10065

Free and open to the public

RSVP: tamigold@mindspring.com | 212.772.4953

The James Aronson Awards for Social Justice Journalism honors creative and ground breaking reporting. The Aronson Awards was established to commemorate James Aronson's 50 years in journalism and teaching. Aronson was a major figure in 20th-century American journalism, who spent a lifetime committed to world peace, social justice, and human dignity.

The James Aronson Awards for Social Justice Journalism is directed by Committee Chair David Alm and produced by Blanca Vazquez, Peter Jackson, and Tami Gold.

Sponsored by the Hunter College Department of Film and Media Studies